

Radio Allocation and Control Plans

Consider the following factors when planning for contingencies:

- Distribution (How will radios be distributed, by whom, when?)
- Radio maintenance and upgrades (What happens when a radio breaks? Does the service shop clone a broken radio to a substitute? Will substitutes be available off the shelf? What is your strategy when large groups of radios need software upgrades?)
- Selective inhibit (What happens when a radio is stolen or lost?)